

Going Deeper

To be used when appropriate or needed.

1. Have I shared the Gospel this week?
2. Have I given anything or anyone higher priority than Jesus this week?
3. How have I blessed or served others this week?
4. Have I let other things take the time I should be giving to prayer and the Word of God?
5. Are there sins I am struggling with?
6. Are there people I need to forgive or to ask forgiveness from?
7. Has my life, my words, my actions, or my thoughts reflected clearly the character of Christ?

LIFE GROUPS

Life Groups exist to help us become disciples of Jesus who:

- Have a profound love for Jesus.
- Regularly read and study the Word of God and obey without hesitation or debate.
- Are active in sharing the Gospel.
- Have passionate desire to invest the time and energy helping others become obedient, faithful disciples.

Reflection Questions for Personal and Group Time

1. What are the key words, phrases, or ideas that draw my attention in the passage?
2. What does this passage teach me about God and what He desires?
3. How does this passage tell me about me as a human being?
4. Are there any instructions, commands, promises, prohibitions, warnings, blessings that I need to apply?
5. What is the one truth in this passage that God is speaking to me
6. What are the actions or changes I will make this week in response to this truth?
7. Who can I share this with this week?

Life Group members will:

- Meet regularly for prayer, Bible study, sharing and accountability.
- Share memorized Scripture verses together each week.
- Encourage one another and be accountable for growing in Christ-like character and behavior.
- Find ways to actively help one another share their faith with friends, family and others.
- Seek to begin new Life Groups among the believers whom God brings into their lives.
