

PRAYER WALK

June 5, 2022

- VBS
- For the children's hearts and minds to be opened to the messages that are presented.
- For all volunteers and staff, that we remain present and stay focused on the ultimate purpose of guiding children to a relationship with Jesus, to know the Lord.
- For all the workers to be inspiring and communicate with the children.
- For youth students helping with VBS to be used to help reach the children in the church.
- For all things to go smoothly and all adults to be flexible.

- For God to help us identify His choice for Children's Minister.
- For God to help us identify His choice for an associate youth minister.
- For God to help us identify His choice for Director of Summit Counseling.
- For God to use FBJ to make a real difference in the City.
- For God to help us embrace His gift of church through Summer Study.
- For God's wisdom and protection.

- For effective and inspiring worship services each week!
- For God's direction during the planning stage of Carols by Candlelight.
- For the search for the Director of Production to lead our media team.
- For a successful launch of the Eva Hart Legacy Scholarship fund.
- For the Lord to raise up more worship leaders in choir and orchestra from every generation.

- For wisdom in the stewardship of God's resources.
- For joy and sense of purpose in work for all staff.
- For continuation of faithful giving of the congregation to the Lord's work here at FBJ.
- For a sense of excitement and anticipation of what The Lord is doing and will do at FBJ.
- For maturing faith and increased discipleship among God's people at FBJ.

- For students, speaker, band, and leaders at CentriKid Camp, One Camp, and Super Summer.

- For Summer Mission Trips: for safety as our teams travel, spiritual harvest among the people where we go, spiritual growth for the members of our FBJ mission trip team members
- For Are You Called? Weekend - July 17 - for God to call people from our congregation into full-time ministry, including overseas service.
- For Global Leadership Initiative Participants - for these to have a clarified sense of their calling through the training we give in Global Leadership.

- For our Missionaries: Tuminello Family, Williams Family, Jessica Barrett with Soul City
- For International/Refugee VBS June 6-9. Internationals learn English skills and God's love for them.

- For Blessing Tuesday July 26. WMU Blessing local ministries: Baptist children's Village, We Will Go, FBJ Mission Houses, Central MS Correctional Facilities, Shower Power, Hope House of Hospitality, Mustard Seed, Soul City Church, Center for Pregnancy Choices, and Mission First.
- For Sunday Night Classics. Those services will continue each Sunday Night until the end of June. May for Eva and Tom as they lead those services. Pray that God would be honored and needs meet.
- On July 10, our church will be hosting a luncheon for those who have been members here for 50 or more years. There are 183 such people. Thank the Lord for the faithfulness of those people and pray for that more and more will join our church and stay for 50 years!
- For the many who are not able to come to the building any longer due to physical circumstances
- For our Sunday School teachers. Many of these spend HOURS each week preparing a lesson and also shepherding their classes. Ask God to bless their efforts and help them see what a difference their efforts are making.
- For JOY. Ask God to make this building a place that it is easy to see joy on each face, and that we as a church would be agents of joy all over this community.
- For the Lord's peace and favor of strength for the tasks that He has for the staff of FBJ.
- For the relaunch of Caregiver Connection, a support group for those who provide regular long-term care for family or friends dealing with dementia or debilitating physical issues or illnesses.
- For the vision casting and launch of several community groups in Clinton, Brandon, and Pearl that will be the start of an intentional strategy to reach all areas of our city with the Gospel.
- For the continued development of a church planting project in South Jackson in partnership with several other churches. We are in the preliminary phase of praying, research, and discussion.
- For our church's relationship with Soul City Church and other downtown ministry partners with whom we are seeking to work to make a difference in the heart of Jackson in the name of Jesus.
- For the CLC to shine a light in the City of Jackson for Jesus.
- For God to cause Jacksonians to see joy when they see FBJ.
- For God to move amongst the plans and people who work in the CLC.

- For the basketball camp and the different ministries taking place in the CLC this summer.
 - Pray that all would feel welcomed and encounter the Gospel through the various programs, events, and day camps taking place.
- For Mission First staff who have lost family members and have sick family members.
 - For new medical and dental clinic patients to know about our services.
 - For our staff as they prepare for summer programs.
 - For consistent/reliable transportation to and from programs, possibly a van.
 - For childcare and part-time staff workers at our Early Learning Center.
 - For legal clients in need working with our new director and volunteers.
 - For many of our students who are graduating our programs and high school.
- For continued referrals so that our summer falloff would be minimal.
 - For our clients to experience healing and restoration.
 - For mental health in general as we attempt to come out of a pandemic and with the rising cost of things that is causing grief, hopelessness, and thoughts of suicide.
 - That God would be glorified through our work at Summit Counseling.
- For our preschool ministry to grow along with the number of volunteers needed as well. Pray that God will instill in the members of our church a desire to serve Him through serving in the preschool.
 - For the planning and preparations of Fall programming.
 - Pray as we reimagine ways to connect with preschool families.
 - Pray that we would use summer to capitalize on youth relationships and discipleship.
 - For our planning for the fall and for our youth volunteers.
- For our Sunday school classes and small groups.
 - For the teachers preparing each Sunday, giving thanks for their diligence in preparation.
 - For guest to be welcomed and invited back.
 - For our class members to experience community and invite those in their circle of influence back to Sunday School.
